

Dear Earth

Dear

Avvaiyar

Art by Murali Nagapuzha

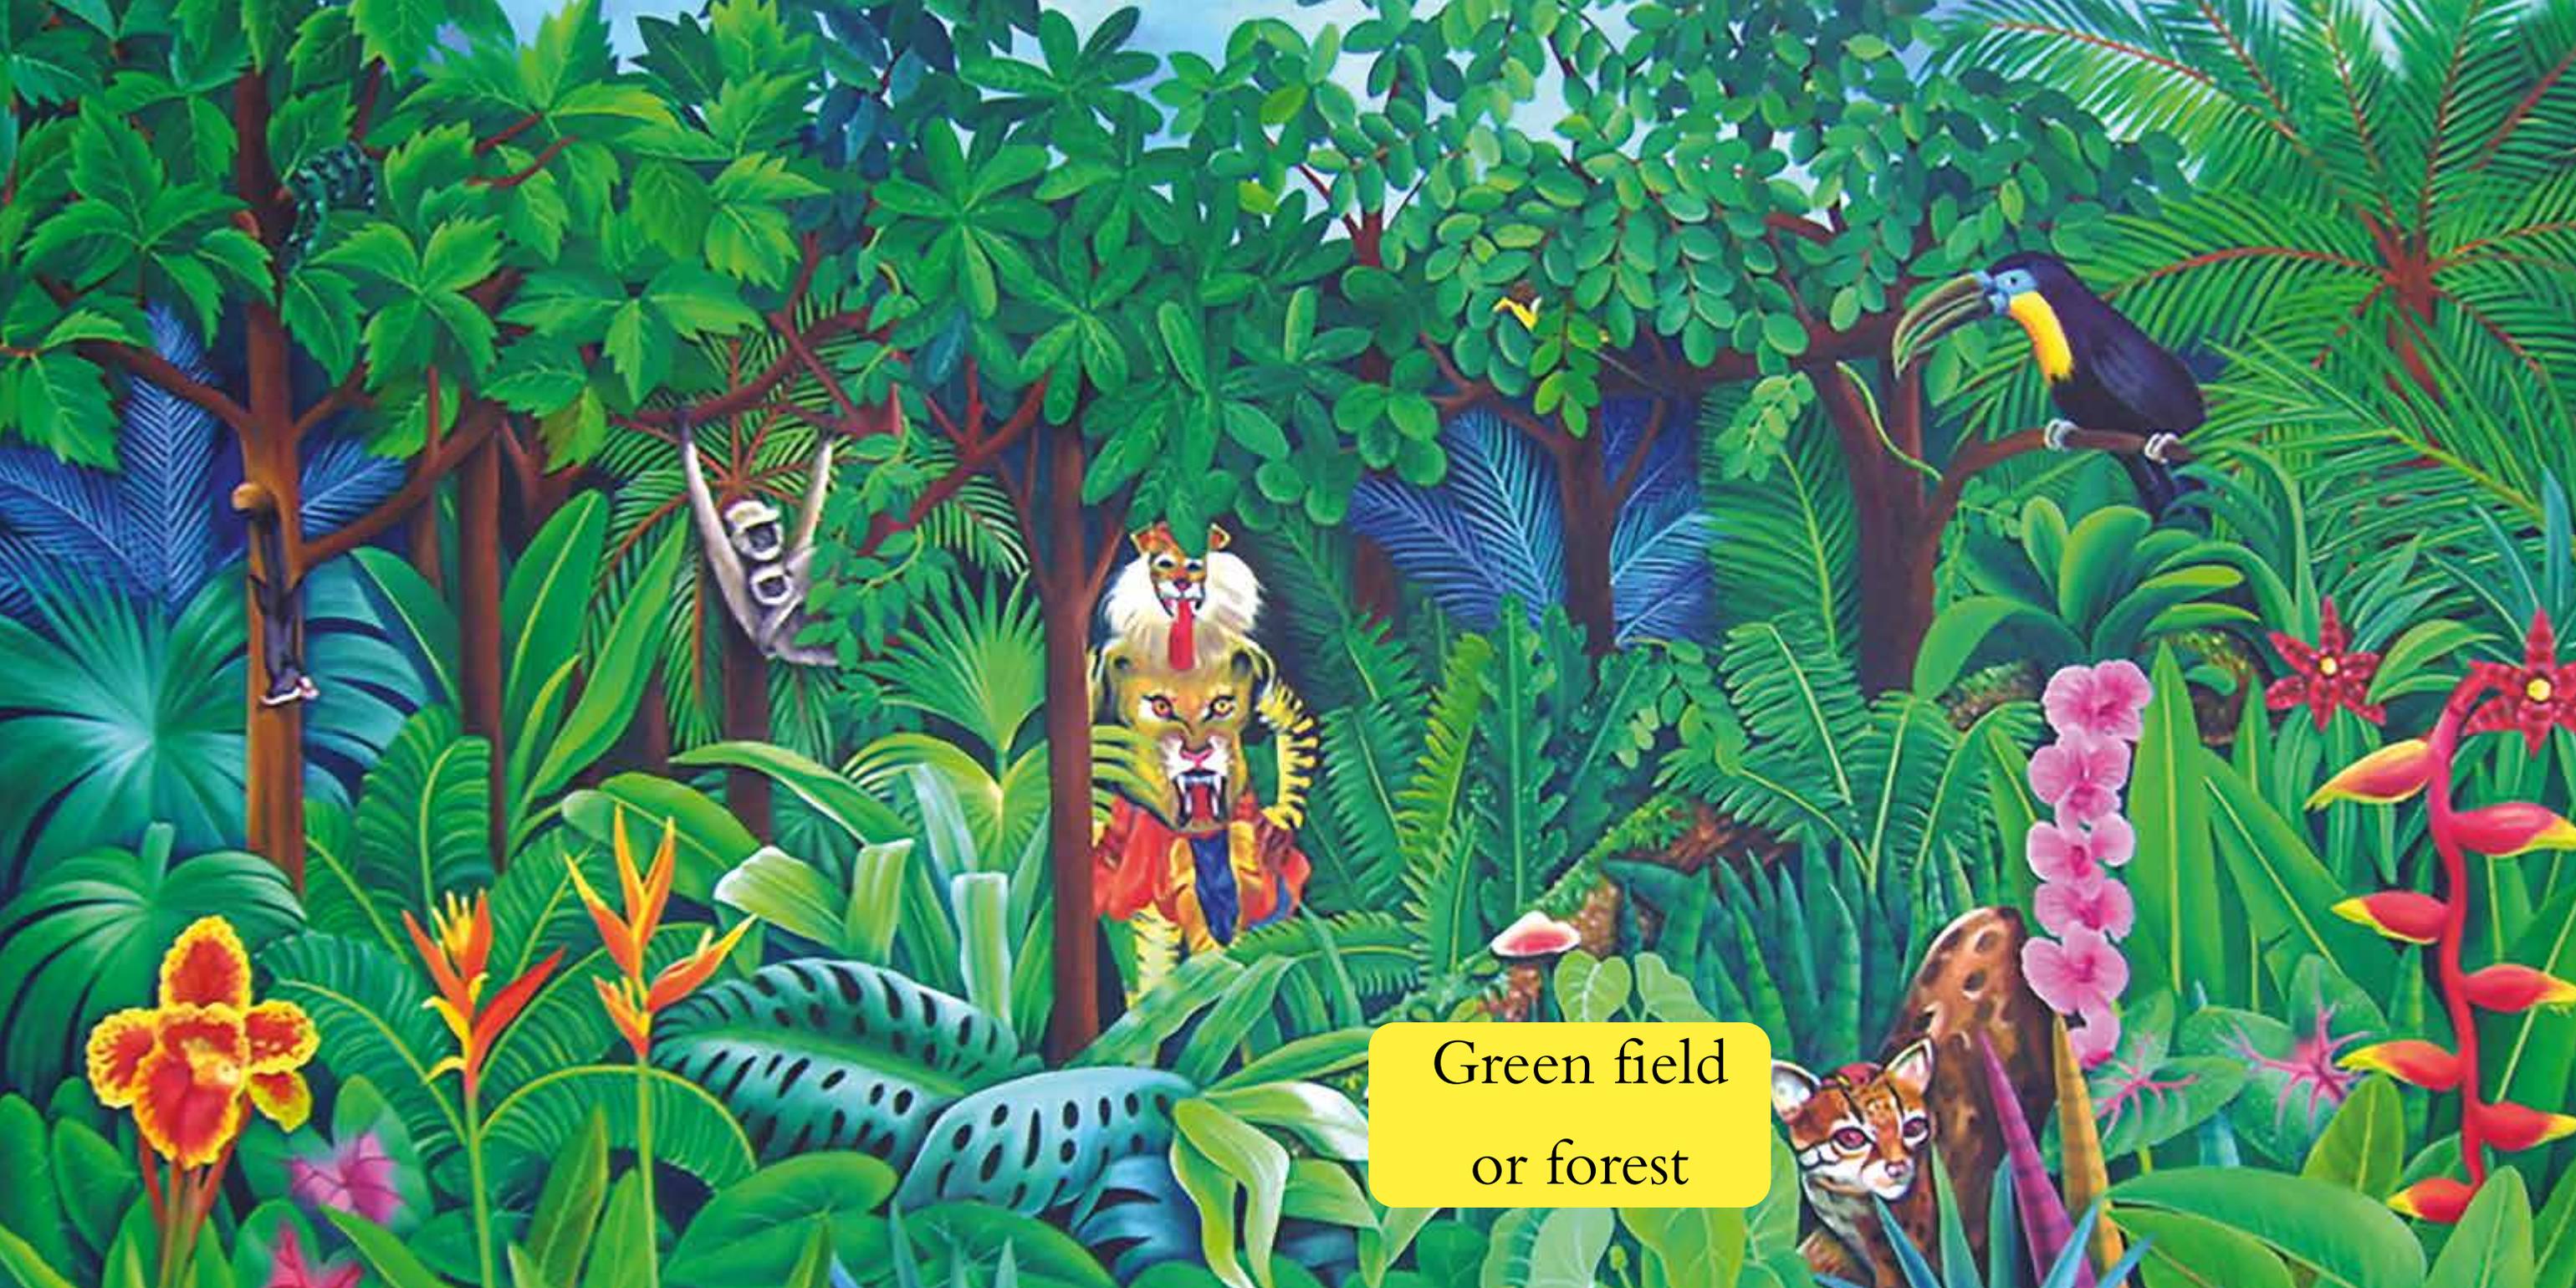

Translated from the Tamil
by Geeta Dharmarajan

a 300m thinkbook from Katha

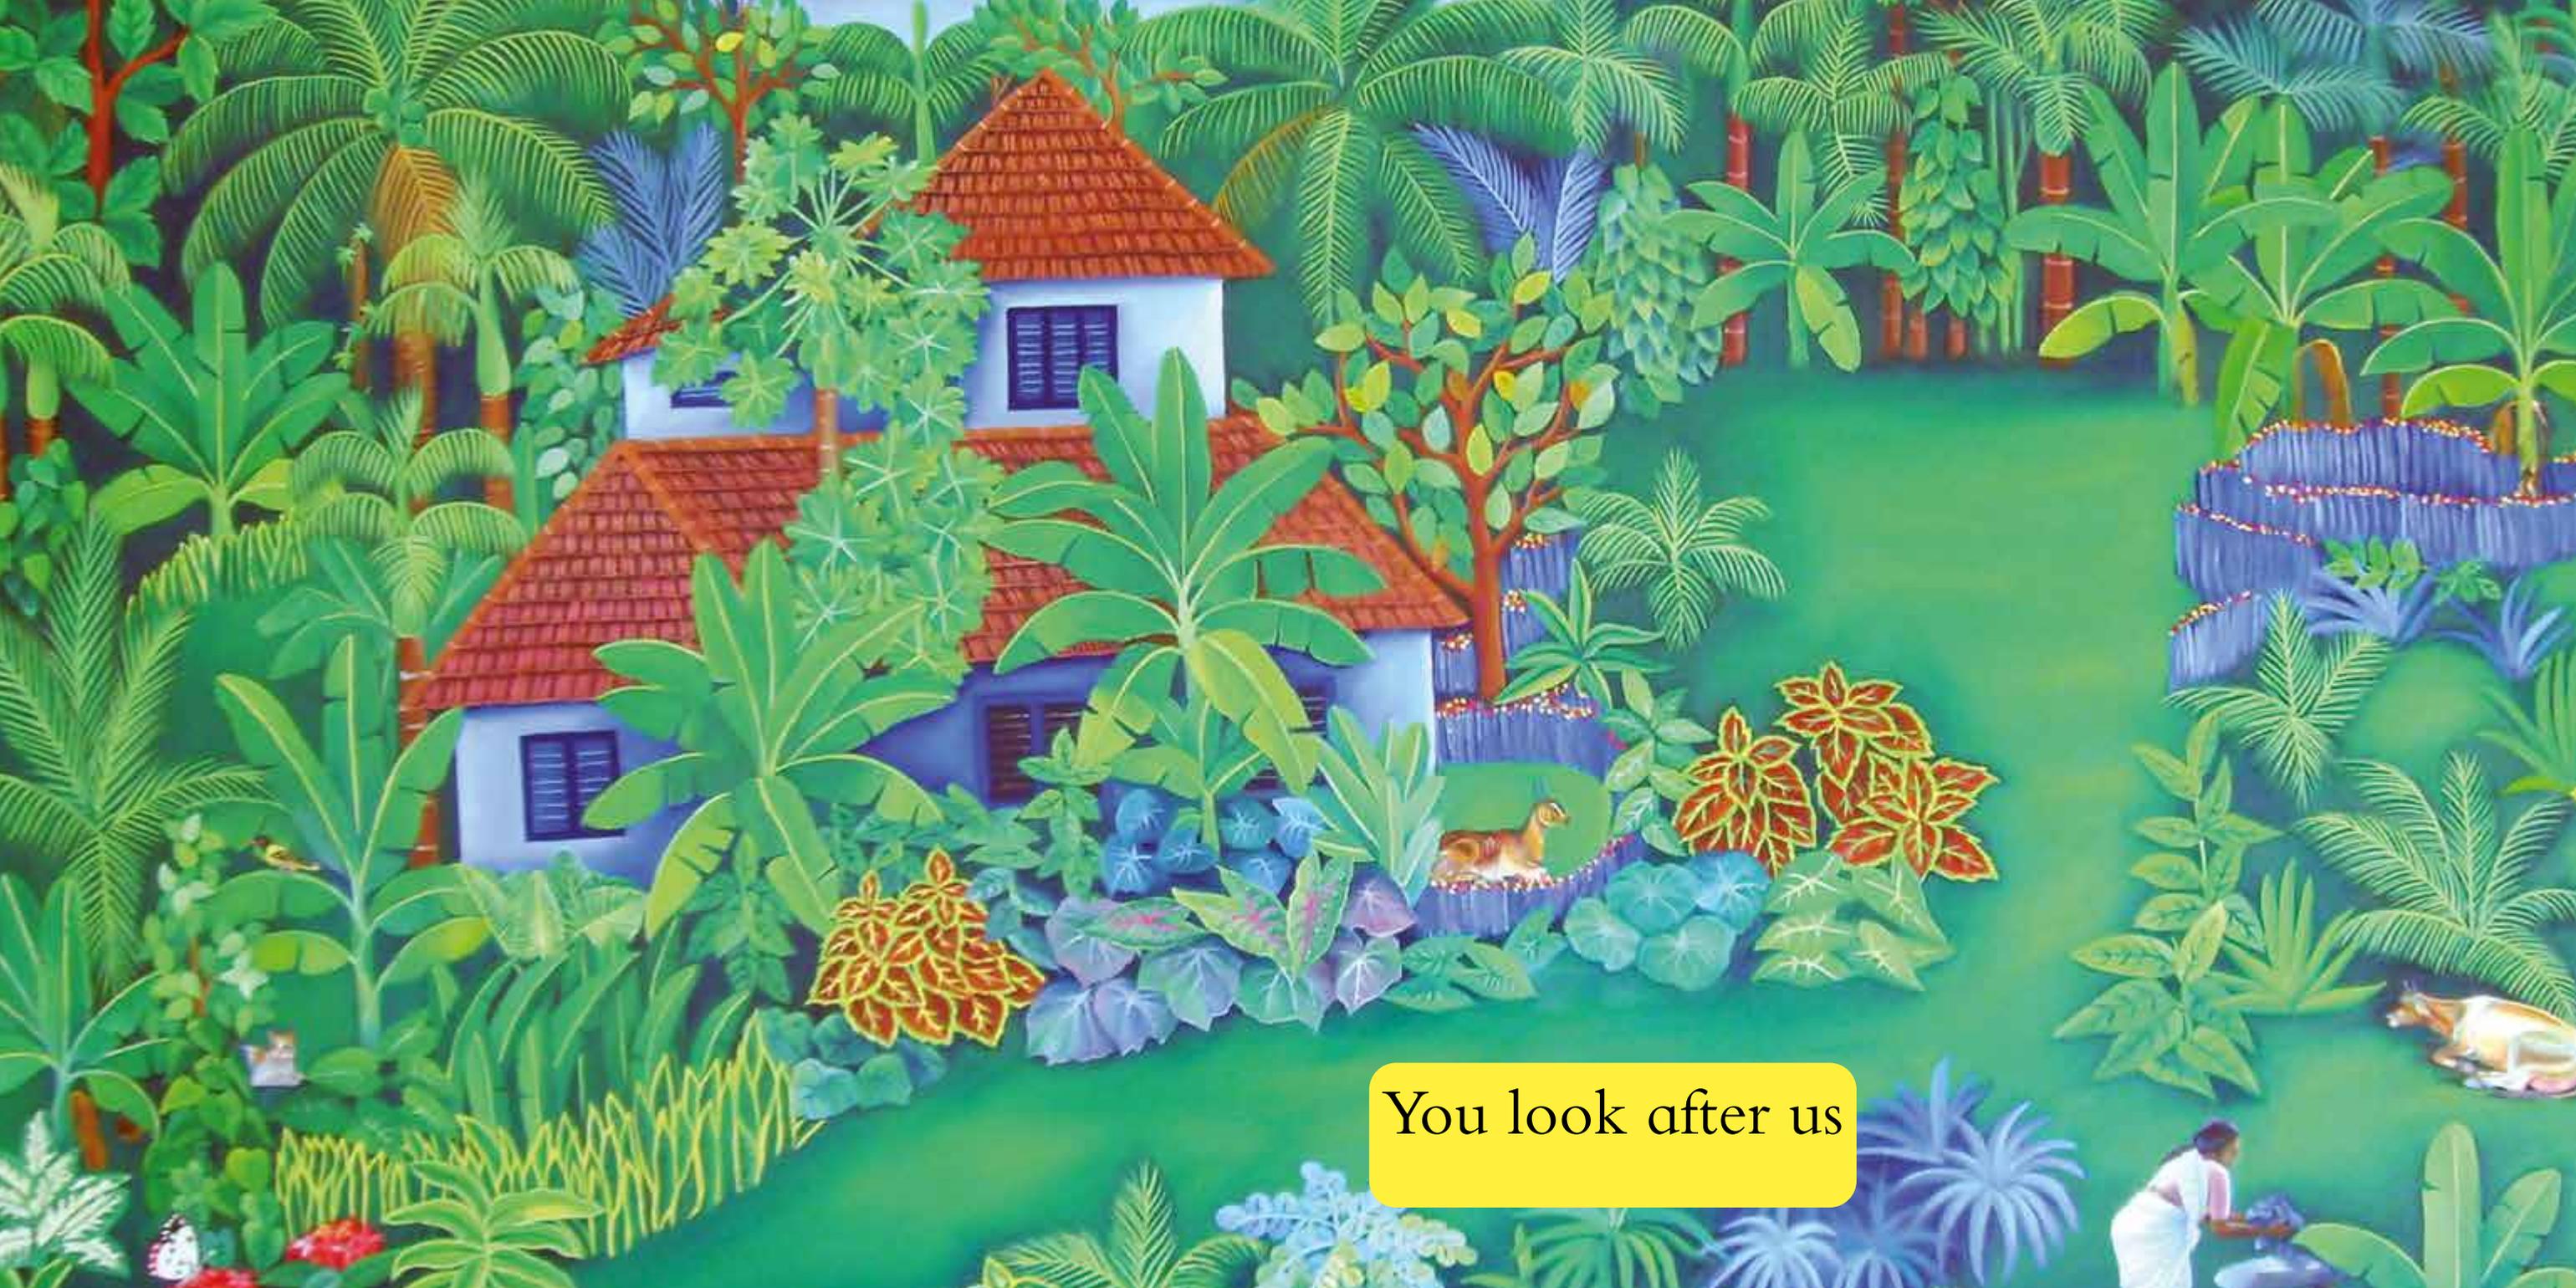

Dear Earth!

Green field or forest

Tall hill or valley

You look after us

when we look after you!

Dear Earth,
May you live long!

TADAAA!

Think

A famous writer once said, “If you only read the books that everyone else is reading, you can only think what everyone else is thinking.” Is he right?

Ask

Did you learn something different from the 25 word-poem written by Avvaiyar? What is special about Avvaiyar’s Big Idea?

Act

Trees are Mother Earth’s children. She looks after us through her green children. Can you look after a tree and say “Thank You!” to Ma Bhumi?

Achieve

This is one more poem by Avvaiyar:

*If on our old earth
There is one kind child,
Because of her
Everyone will receive rain.*

Can you be that kind child who brings everyone rain?

Discuss

If there is one thing you could do to make our dear Earth happy, what would it be?

9 ways to be kind

I can be Kind by ...

Offering
to help

Being happy
for others

Saying nice things to others

Caring about others

Encouraging
my friends

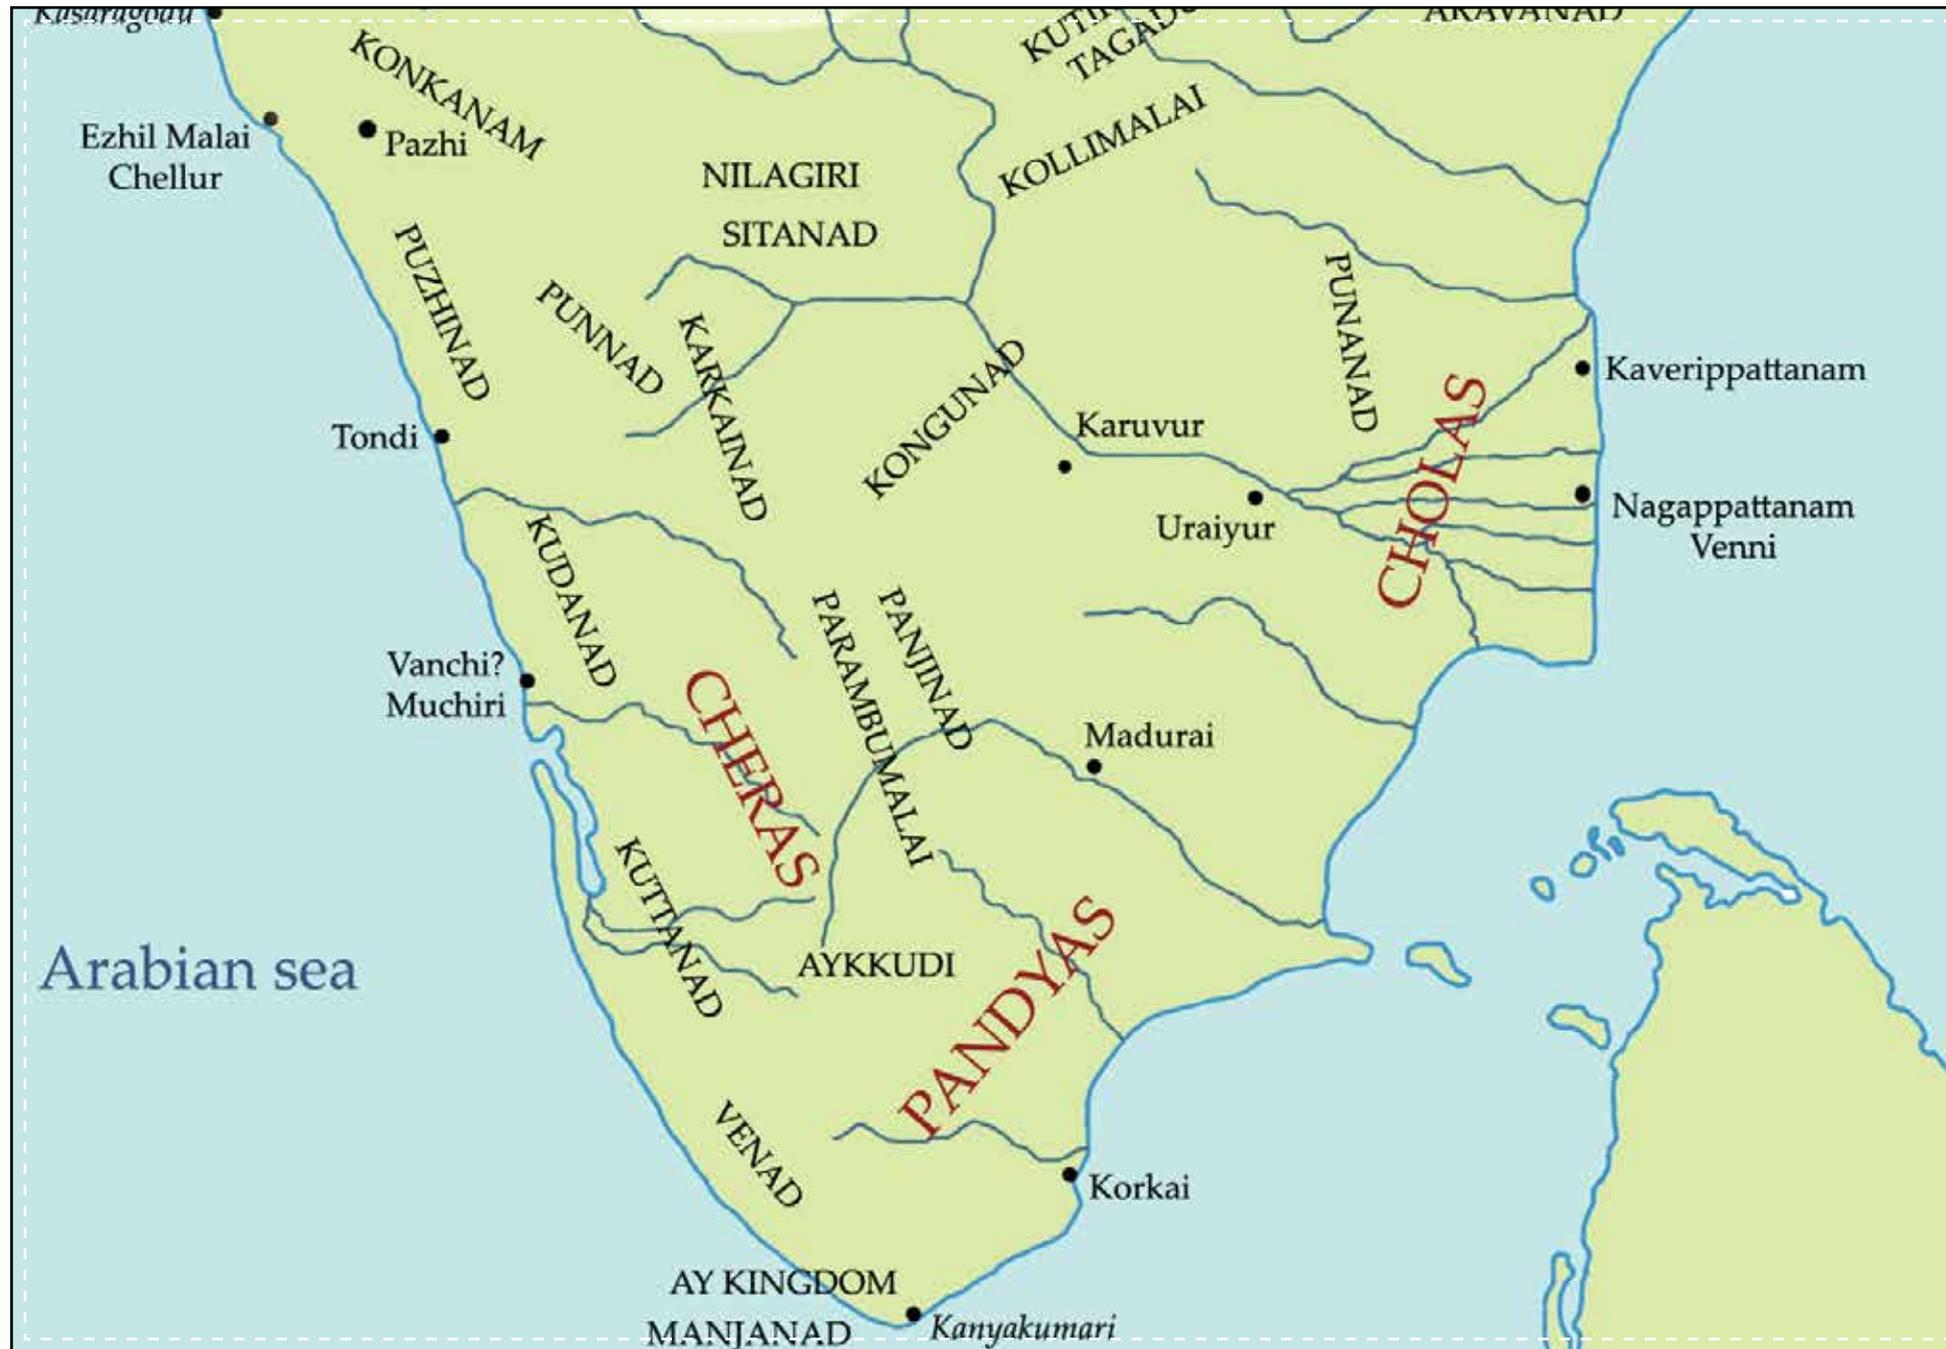

Listening
when others
speak

Using good manners

Sharing and taking turns

Smiling

LONG, LONG AGO ...

- About 2,500 years ago, the whole of South India was called Tamilakam.
- Tamilakam was ruled by great, wise kings.
- The kings loved dance, music, poetry and the fine arts.
- They invited many poets to come together and share their songs and poems.

WHEN 400 POETS SANG ...

- Historians say that there were three Sangams.
- These Sangams are also known as the great gatherings of poets.
- There were around 400 poets who wrote Tamil poetry during the Sangam Age.
- Many poets were invited by the kings for advice.

THERE WAS A POET CALLED AVVAIYAR ...

- Avvaiyar was a very wise, old woman.
- She was a poet.
- She advised many kings and ordinary people, who listened to her.
- Some say Avvaiyar lived 2300 years ago.
- Many stories say that Avvaiyar walked barefoot from village to village across South India.
- She stayed with farmers and their families.
- She created songs that brought joy to everyone.

WHERE IS GOD?

Avvaiyar was resting in an old temple. Her feet pointed towards the statue of Lord Shiva. Goddess Parvathi got angry. She scolded Avvaiyar, “How can you be so disrespectful!” Avvaiyar was quiet. She then said, “I am sorry, Ma. Please tell me where God is not present. I will point my feet there.”

Goddess Parvathi smiled. She said, “You are right. God is everywhere!”

Geeta Dharmarajan belongs to Tanjavur, a district of Tamil Nadu. A writer for children, she started Katha in 1988. She has received many awards, including the Padma Shri for her work in literature and education.

Murali Nagapuzha grew up in a village called Nagapuzha in Kerala. As a child he loved the green all around his home, it is no wonder that Murali's works have plenty of green in them.

KATHA

Katha is a globally recognised non-profit organization (www.katha.org) that has been working in the literacy to literature continuum since 1988. Our nearly 30 years of experience is in publishing and education for children in poverty.

"An educational jewel in India's crown."

— Naoyuki Shinohara, Deputy Managing Director, IMF

"Katha stands as an exemplar for all the creative projects around the world that grapple with ordinary and dramatic misery in cities."

— Charles Landry, *The Art of City Making

"Katha has a real soft corner for kids. Which is why it ... create[s] such gorgeous picture books for children." — Time Out

"Katha's work is driven by the idea that children can bring change to their communities that is sustainable and real, just as the children do in [their books.]" — Papertigers
