Our Mission: Every child reading well for fun and meaning!

KATHA is a registered nonprofit organization started in 1988. We work in the literacy to literature continuum. Devoted to enhancing the joys of reading amongst children and adults, we work with more than 1,00,000 children in poverty, to bring them to grade-level reading through quality books and interventions.

Ten per cent of sales proceeds from this book will support the quality education of children studying in Katha Schools.

Katha regularly plants trees to replace the wood used in the making of its books.

These books are specially made with love and care by the Katha team, for 5-12
year olds.

They are part of our UntextBook Initiative, to bring the joy of reading through literature and fabulous artworks.

Take your child from wordless books to books
with 1200 words.

Stories and poems from 3,500 years of literary history.

Read with your children.
Colour their world with imagination.

I Love Reading Library is a unique series of books that brings new and diffident readers into reading fluently. With high-quality content and design to match the learning needs of children who are at different reading levels, it brings together the finest literary creations and artworks from India and the world. Our books manifest Geeta Dharmarajan's StoryPedagogy™ - a unique pedagogical model, which promotes the joy of reading specially for first generation readers and takes the child into the fascinating world of BIG Ideas and TA-DAA!

(Think, Ask, Discuss, Act and Achieve).

Katha's Holistic Early Learning (KHEL!) Lab offers workshops to teachers in government, non-profit and private schools. These are F2F (Face-to-Face) workshops supported by online sessions leading to a "Reading Teachers' Certificate" for teachers, school administrators and volunteers.
