

TONGUE TWISTER

FOUR FINE FRESH FISH FOR YOU

GUIDELINES

What?

Tongue twisters are a sequence of words or sounds, typically of an alliterative kind, that are difficult to pronounce quickly and correctly. For example, Peter Piper picked a peck of pickled pepper.

They are a great way to practice and improve pronunciation and fluency. They can also help to improve accents by using alliteration, which is the repetition of one sound.

Tongue twisters may not make a lot of sense, but they aid language development. Often, these random sounds, strung together, aid in speech therapy

Why?

Tongue twisters are a literacy workout.

They challenge our capacity to enunciate the individual sounds in each word and they force us to pay careful attention to the precise sounds in each word.

Mastering the individual sounds in words is a critical skill for reading success.

The benefits of tongue twisters for a child are:

1. Improved pronunciation and enunciation.
2. Better flow of speech and improved diction.
3. Improved memory.
4. Better communication skills.
5. Improved reading.

How?

1. Start by reciting tongue twisters slowly and clearly.
2. Split them into sections, then practice.
3. Repeat them until you have mastered it.
4. Try another one, once you have mastered one tongue twister.
5. Listen to the audio and make the child practice the tongue twister at least ten times through oral recitation.

Teaching Instructions

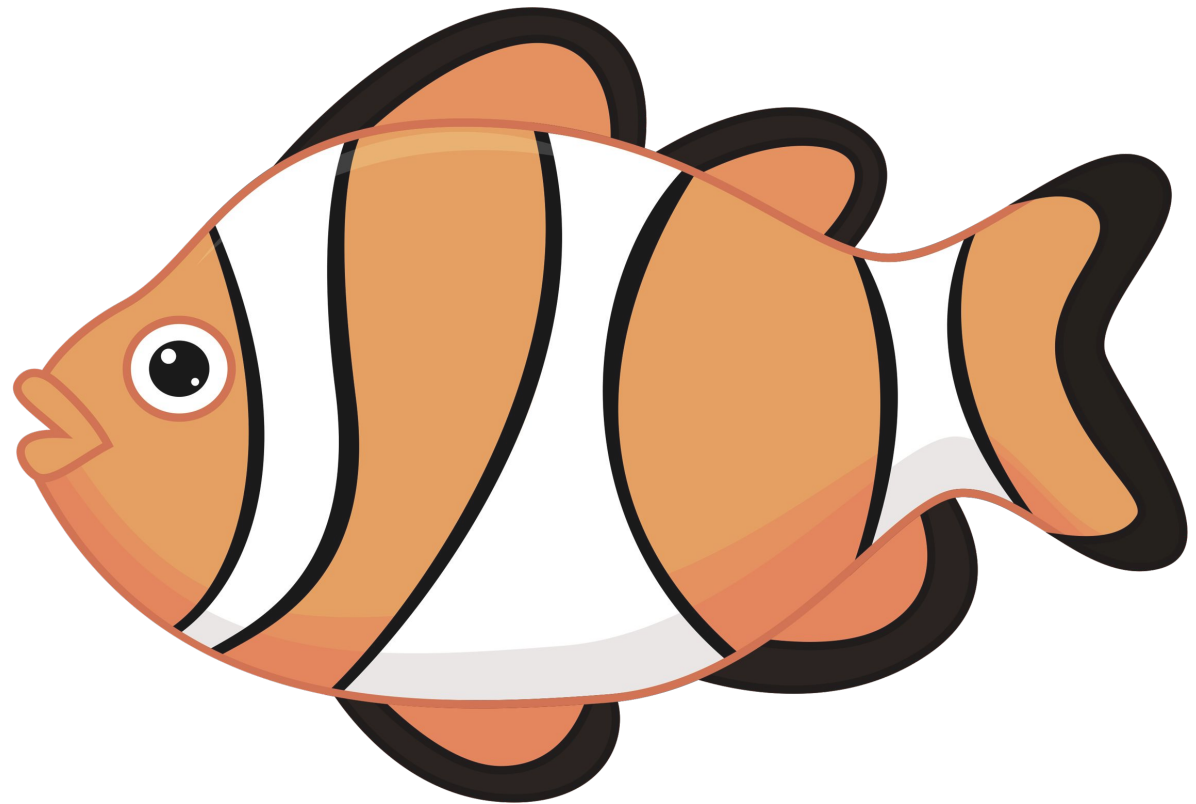

1. Start by saying the tongue twister slowly, then try to speed up.
2. Ask the child to read the tongue twisters aloud.
3. Then ask them to read them once again but faster.
4. Later, ask them to read as fast as they can three times in a row.
5. Ask the child if they know any tongue twisters in their native language and ask them to repeat.

Do you know what a tongue twister is?
It is string of words which sound alike. It is a great way to learn good pronunciations.

Ready to learn?

Here is a fish who has come to meet you.

Say hi! :)

Shall we say this tongue twister about this little fish?

‘Four fine fresh fish for you.’

Got it?

Can you say it again?

‘Four fine fresh fish for you.’

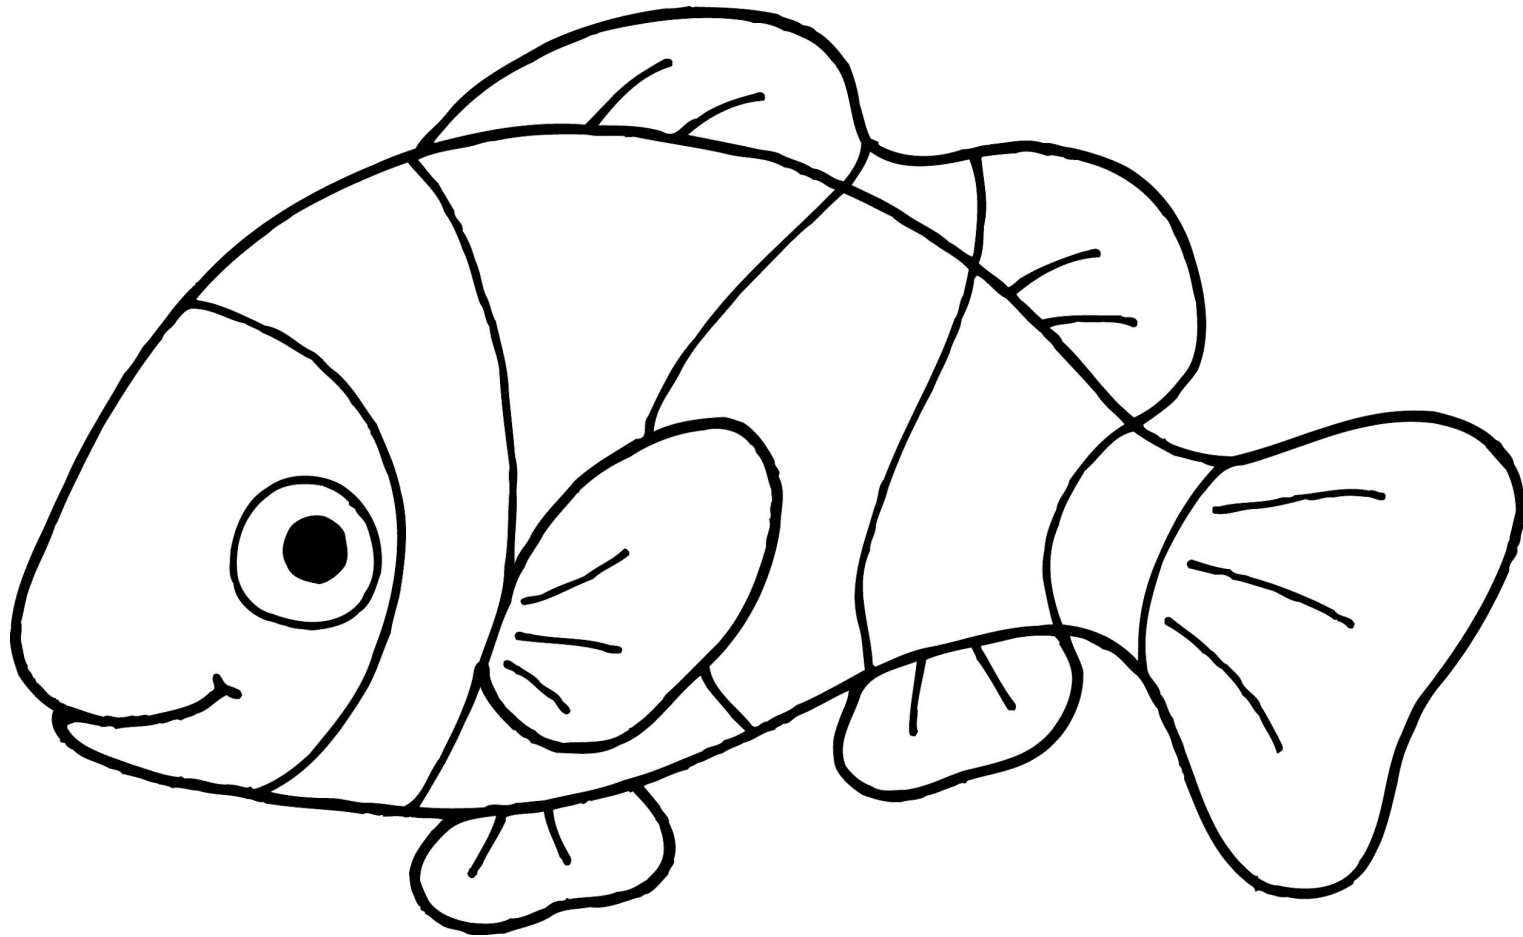

Another time!

‘Four fine fresh fish for you.’

Awesome!

It's activity time now.

Would you like to trace and color the fish?

Hope you enjoyed it.

Happy Learning !!!